

How to forward your DiscoverLimu.com e-mail to another e-mail account

This document will step you through configuring your DiscoverLimu.com e-mail to forward to another e-mail address such as AOL or Hotmail.

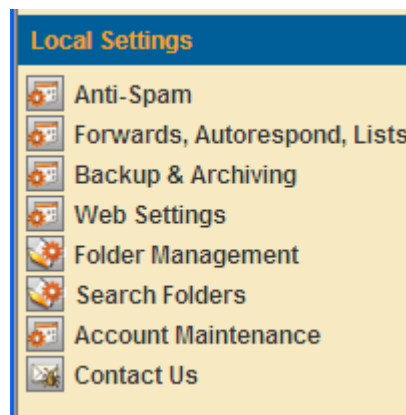

NOTE: When replying to a forwarded e-mail it will be sent from the account you are replying from not your DiscoverLimu.com e-mail address.

Login to your DiscoverLimu.com webmail account.

Click the Settings button.

From the Local Settings Menu on the left Click Forwards, Autorespond, Lists. Autorespond and Lists are not covered in this document.

Mail Forwarders

A mail forwarder allows you to forward mail to another email address from one of your domains that you have configured. For example forward everything sent to yourname@yourdomain.com to yourname@yahoo.com. You also have the option to send everything @yourdomain.com to youremail@address.com.

Click Add a new mail forwarder to a domain name

Mail Forwarders

The following mail forwarders are email addresses that are forwarded to a email address of your choice. For example webmaster@yourdomain.com would be forwarded to yourwebmaster@webmasterdomain.com

Add a new mail forwarder to a domain name

Enter the left portion of your e-mail address (the portion preceding the @ symbol) and Select DiscoverLimu.com from the list.

Enter the e-mail address to forward to (IE: johnq@aol.com or johnq@qwest.net).

Your screen should look similar to below.

Add a mail forwarder
Select account name:	Mail Forwarder Name    Domain <input type="text" value="johnq"/> @ <input type="text" value="discoverlimu.com"/>
Email Address to Forward to:	<input type="text" value="johnq@qwest.net"/>
<input type="button" value="Add Mail Forwarder"/>

Click Add Mail Forwarder to save. You will return to the main Forwarders configuration screen
